Amiphoria, the three-day fun-packed annual fest of Amity University, Kolkata rebounds in the month of February and March 2024. It is a vivacious coalescence of students and delegates from universities and colleges all over the city.

The objective of the three-day festival is to create an unparalleled forum for students, comprising all elements of experiential learning and to test their intellectual and artistic progress, simultaneously opening avenues for the mutual sharing of experience, skills, and talent. It also aims at helping them reach their collective and individual aspirations in cultural, literary and other activities on a common platform.

Amiphoria encourages students to hone their professional skills such as leadership, teamwork, business, acumen, resource generation, management, and converting ideas to events with implementation.

ESCAPE ROOM

CRISIS MANAGEMENT

Objective:

This innovative approach aims to blend the excitement of a treasure hunt with the intellectual challenge of crisis management, preparing participants for the complexities of the business world in an engaging and dynamic format.

Team Composition:

Teams of 4-5 members, each adopting a crucial role:
- Leader: Drives the team's strategy and ensures adherence to timelines.
- Analyst: Focuses on dissecting clues and linking them to potential crises.
- Communicator: Articulates the team's findings and strategies clearly.
- Strategist: Develops a solid action plan based on the interpreted clues.
- Innovator: Suggests creative solutions for crisis management.

AMIPHORIA 2024

Presentation Guidelines

- Timing: A strict 4-minute pitch to present the crisis management strategy.
- Language: Presentations may be in Hindi or English, excluding Bengali for uniformity.
- Format: A compelling pitch deck summarizing the crisis, proposed solutions, and action plan

Clue Distribution Timeline

- First Clue: Distributed at 4 PM, offering the initial hint towards the crisis.
- Second Clue: Provided at 7 PM, to assist teams further if the crisis remains unsolved.
- Direct Meme Reveal: At 10 PM, teams that haven't identified the crisis receive the meme, with a corresponding negative mark for this aid.

Storyline

The "Escape Room" Crisis Management Challenge now takes you on a journey of discovery and strategy, reminiscent of a treasure hunt. Participants won't directly stumble upon a crisis through a meme but will instead be led on a path of clues starting at 4 PM the day before the challenge. These clues, ranging from cryptic quotes to suggestive images related to a real company's situation, will guide teams through a layered discovery process.The aim is to piece together the puzzle, identifying the crisis before a direct meme reveal becomes necessary.

AMIPHORIA 2024

Rules:

• Teams embark on a clue-based discovery of a real company's crisis, simulating the urgency and unpredictability of real-world business challenges.

• Negative marking applies to teams requiring the direct meme reveal to identify the crisis.

• Presentations evaluated on the efficiency of crisis identification, creativity, solution feasibility, and overall presentation and teamwork.

• The event fosters skills in analysis, strategic thinking, and problem-solving, enhancing participants' readiness for actual business crises.

Registration Fee – Rs.100

Short Summary of the Event

After a long day, as you unwind and scroll through your phone, a mysterious clue appears at 4 PM, signaling the start of the "Escape Room" Crisis Management Challenge. This isn't just any scenario; it's unfolding within your own company. Suddenly, you're plunged into a strategic adventure, deciphering hints about a crisis hitting close to home. With each clue, from cryptic quotes to suggestive images, your team races against time, unraveling the puzzle before the final reveal at 10 PM. This challenge isn't just a game; it's a real test of wit, teamwork, and crisis management, all unfolding from the comfort of your couch, turning your after-work relaxation into a thrilling quest to save your company.
